Raffle Tickets Still Available!

There is still time to get your tickets from the Sew and Sew Country Quilters or at the quilt shop for the 2014 Quilt Raffle. Two quilts are raffled annually, in addition to several hand-crafted items sewn by club members. Money earned from the sale of raffle tickets will fund various charity projects throughout the year, including relief quilts sewn for victims of fire and tornado disasters. Raffle tickets are offered for $2 each or 3 for $5. Watch for the Sew and Sew Country Quilters as they display the 2014 Raffle Quilt at local businesses. The drawing will be held on December 4, just in time for winter nights or Christmas gifts! Wouldn't this queen size "Other Side of the Tracks" quilt look beautiful on YOUR bed?

Celebrate Autumn - Fall Leaves Quilt Challenge

We recently received this newsworthy email about the WI Quilt Expo that we wanted to share with our readers:

As we continue to celebrate 10 years of Quilt Expo, we're excited to offer the Quilt Expo Fall Leaves Quilt Challenge. This new challenge is in addition to the annual juried and judged Quilt Contest and features $600 in prizes. Here are the main requirements:

- Quilts may be pieced, appliqued, landscape, mixed media or any other quilting technique.
- Quilts must be made in colors representing fall in Wisconsin.
- Your quilt must measure 30-inches wide and 40-inches in length
- You must be willing to share your quilt with others as it will be featured at Quilt Expo Sept. 10-12, 2015 and as part of a traveling exhibit.

For more information and entry forms, visit wiquiltexpo.com. Get ideas for your challenge quilt with Nancy Zieman's fall landscape quilting tips and techniques. Happy quilting!
